TASTE FOR HIGH LIVING GETS MAN INTO TROUBLE

Hoffman's Delusion That World Owed Him Living Wrong

SPENT FEW DAYS HERE

Claimed He Was an Engineer Sent to Survey for Pennsylvania Railroad

Working under the theory that all he world owed him a living and that is only duty was to attend to the collection of the debt, W. C. Hollman, lias Frederick C. Werner, has got imself into a lot of trouble. Hollman devoted himself faithfully to the ork of wresting an existance from he world with the least possible effort, but his automobile tastes and heelbarrow income wrecked his ondest hopes and delusions. He is ow being held pending a court trial n a charge of false pretense in Algheny count.

About two weeks ago it is said Hollan turned up in Charleroi. He gave s name as Werner and was accordg to his story the first representave of a corps of engineers being sent ere by the Pennsylvania Railroad to art surveys for a branch line. He rried himself like an earl and enged rooms, it is said, at the Waled Hotel, where he remained a few ys. Then he secured three rooms r himself and a partner who was to me, at the home of P. J. Deprez on llowfield avenue. Werner was very reless with his visionary wealth and omised to compensate. Mr. Deprez r the rental of the three rooms th a monetary consideration iounting to about $80 per month. erner ordered a lot of furniture and epared to set up housekeeping for nself in the grandest of style.

After occupying the suit of rooms couple of days he discovered he d to go to Pittsburg On Wednesv of last week he went, it is stated, d took with him Victor Deprez. ey stopped at the Monongahela use. On a flimsy excuse the man t Deprez to wait for him and went ay. That was the last seen of him Mr. Deprez.

t seems that Werner then changback to the name Hollman, rented uit of rooms from a Pittsburg man, reeing to pay $75. He wanted to nish his own rooms, install teleones, and have every convenience. er he had remained a day or so he sented a check for $500 in payet of his room rent and then went h the landlady to have the check hed. Hollman is alleged to have her he couldn't get it cashed and ed for a loan of $20, which she e him. Then he disappeared and not heard of again until the wo-'s husband met him and then it ired the services of the police to them loosed from each other's tomy. The woman's husband made rmation and Hollman was held for t by Magistrate Kirby.

Telephone Companies May Fight

Washington County to be Scene of Hot Warfare for Local Control

According to the Washington Record there are prospects of a telephone war in this county. For many years, the Western Union company has enjoyed a monoplay of the Washington district, but through an order handed down in the district court at Wheeling Wednesday, the Postal Telegraph the Western Union's main rival, gained entrance into Washington. The order signed by Judge Dayton gives the receivers of the National Telephone company the power to make a contract with the Postal people to use the National's circuit into Washington. The order also provides for other circuits and gives the National company permission to contract for service over the Postal company's circuits into Chicago, thus giving them entrance into the long distance field that they have heretofore not been able to enter. Just how soon the Postal people will enter Washington is not certain, but it is given as probable that one or more circuits will be put in operation between there and Pittsburg before active operations are begun.

The rumored telephone war in Washington will mean that the National company will complete their construction there in the near future, if the plans of the officials of the company materializes thus putting it in position to compete with the Bell. The war, if started, is sure to be a merry one. It is stated that a big slash in rates m ay be expected and a large amount of additional service given subscribers for their money. According to rumor, this will include free service from Washington to Pittsburg, Claysville and practically all of Washington county. Just what concessions the Belle people will make to meet this is, of course not known.

Practically Same Official Force Selected as That of Last Year--Banquet is Held at the Elk's Club

With about 50 automobile owners present the Monongahela Valley Automobile Club held a banquet and took up their yearly business at the Elk's Club Thursday evening. The banquet was tendered the members of the association by K. W. Daly and J. J. Hott, both of Charleroi.

At the business session the main business was the election of officers to serve for the ensuing year. Practically the same official force as that of last year was chosen. The new list is as follows: President, J. J. Hott, Charleroi; first vice president, George Nash, Monessen; second vice president, T. L. Lewis, Donora; third vice president, Albert Gregg, Monongahela; board of governors for two years, Dr. A. R. Wilson, George Stevens, Monessen; M. J. O'Donnell, Donora; board of governors for one year, K. W. Daly, C. S. Van Voorhis, Charleroi; Dr. E. C. French, Ellsworth; secretary, Walter Byerly; treasurer, Harry Assenat, Charleroi.

George Nash acted as toastmaster of the banquet, in the absence of the president, J. J. Hott. A merry exchange of stories and ancedotes followed a most congenial gathering.

Government Begins War On Trust

Movement is Made Against the United States Steel Corporation

The United States Government on Thursday filed in the United States court at Trenton a suit for the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation alleging it to be in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

In its prayer to the court the Government asks that the conspiracy and monopolization of trade and commerce by the Steel trust be declared unlawful and in violation of the Sherman law and asks that the defendants and each and every one of them and the officers, directors, stockholders and agents of the defendant corporations be perpetually enjoined from doing any act in pursuance or for the purpose of carrying out the same, and that the government also asks the separation of the Steel corporation into its component parts as they existed prior to its organization.

PERCY PHILLIPS NOW IN TRIPOLI

Percival Phillips, a Brownsville product who is now a war correspondent on the London Express, is now near the seat of trouble in Tripoli. In a recent letter to his brother, J. S. M. Phillips, of Pittsburg, written from Sfax, Tunisia, he details some of his experiences. He says:

"I am off by a coastwise steamer this afternoon down the coast to Djerba, and we are trying to pass the blockade into Tripoli, 180 miles southward. No detailed news has come out yet, and I am most anxious to be among the first to enter. The French Consul General of Tripoli, who was turned back last week, goes by the same boat. I left Paris last Sunday night for Marseilles, thence on a mail steamer to Tunis, arriving Tuesday morning, thence 250 miles by rail to Sfax.

"This is a beautiful town—the European quarter is clean and healthy and the walled Arab city one of the most beautiful sights I have ever seen In color, variety of costume and type it excels China and Japan. The white buildings, the veiled women, the camels in the narrow streets, the Mosques and the dazzling tints of the costumes fairly took my breath away, although I have seen a good many strange places.

"The moonlight is wonderful. Weather excessively hot and humid; nothing can be done in the middle of the day. I am feeling splendidly fit; wear the usual cholera belt and sun helmet. It is a great comfort to get into khaki and putees once more. One can keep quite well event in the cholera district by eating only cooked food and evading local water and wearing flannel across the abdomen."

Mr. Phillips began his newspaper work as a local correspondent for the Gazette Times, Pittsburg, and later worked on the Monongahela Republican before going to Pittsburg. From Pittsburg he went to New York and from thence to London.

Series Ends And Mack's Team Beats

Local Interests in World's Championship Games Subsides

With the completion of the world's series of baseball games by the defeat of the New York Nationals at Philadelphia Thursday by the Americans of that city, baseball fans are busy today telling how it happened Many are also either pocketing sundry wagers or paying the same, according to their judgment in picking the winning team.

At the outset of the series the Giants were the favorites if anything with the local fans, and "dope" without end was given out to show how the McGraw bunch could not be beaten. Street corner arguments were hot and heavy, and those who picked the Philadelphia team just because they were Pennslyvanians, now have the call on their opponents. Advices from different sections up and down the river are beginning to leak out by sundry telegrams and letters from the seat of war for remittances as to how a numbere who attended the game in person placed their money

Yesterday the score in front of Weltner's pharmacy was the all absorbing point of interest, and as the game progressed with the Philadelphia team away in the lead, the backers of the Giants sorrowfully and silently one by one stole away. Those who backed the Mackites with their cash are today in a state of jubiliation.

Smell Smoke in Storeroom

Current Switched on in Electric Iron Results in Firemen Being Called Out

When the smell of burning rubber was noticed at the store of L. Kutler and Son, on Fallowfield avenue near the postoffice Thursday night at about 11:30 o'clock prompt action was taken that probably prevented a serious blaze. Mrs. H. Lowstutter, who lives over the store, sent in the alarm by telephone to police headquarters and the firemen were called out by the ringing of Alarm No. 19. The switch of the electric iron had been accidentally turned on and the iron was sitting on a table. Getting hotter and hotter the iron caused the piece of rubber to burn. In a little while, it is supposed the whole store would have been on fire.

Pittsburg Police Get Local Boys

Two Lads to Appear Against Man Supposed to Have Enticed Them

Chief of Police C. W. Albright received information this morning that Edward Paulso and James Sandi boys about 14 years old, of Charleroi were being held at No. 2 Central police station at Pittsburg, to testify as witnesses against a man by the name of Delalcher, claimed to have enticed the boys to Pittsburg for immoral purposes. Parents of the two lads were notified.

Poulso and Sandi were picked up by the police on Dinwiddie avenue. 8They told a story of how they were enticed away from their homes by Delalcher and said he wanted them for immoral purposes. They told the story of how they left their homes in detail, it is said, and the police after a search arrested the accused man.

When the Pittsburg police are through with the boys as witnesses they will be sent home.

Disorderly Conduct is Charge Preferred Against Trio

ASPECTS OF THE CASE

Troublesome Element Somewhat Similar to Monongahela's "Gang"

Proven guilty of disorderly conduct by the testimony of seven witnesses, Ben Kiefer, Kenneth ("Bones") Matson and Robert McCurry were taken to jail this morning by Policeman Gust Brickner to begin a sentence of 30 days each imposed by Justice of the Peace E. E. Rice in default of payment of $10 fine and costs. The trio was concerned in a disturbance on the street Wednesday evening. Information was made against them by Chief of Police C. W. Albright.

The hearing was given the young men Thursday evening. Witnesses heard were Police George McEldowney, Chief of Police C. W. Albright, Charles Frazier, Ed. Gilmore, Health Officer William Darby, James McNonagel and Councilman Charles O Frye. The evidence offered was in effect the same. Kiefer, it was stated was arrested charged with insulting women, and Matson took up his side, with the result that an attempt was made to arrest him. He battled with the police and McCurry took up the matter to such an extent that he was adjudged guilty of creating disorder and locked up.

The local case has many of the aspects of that of the noted "Alcohol Gang" at Monongahela, a score of whose members is now serving time in the Washington jail for disorderly conduct While there are not so many concerned in the local affair, the source of what trouble occurred it is said is the same. From the "Alcohol Gang" at Monongahela came the killing of Joshua Wyeth by John W. Sarver, Jr., but the most that has come from the existence of a supposed gang here was the disturbance of the other night.

A RIGHTEOUS SENTENCE.

The imposition of a thirty days sentence upon the offenders who created disorder on the streets Wednesday by a local justice of the peace, is a righteous one, and meets with the general approbation of the public. Not only is the sentence a salutary example of the supremacy of law and order, but it also is a move against a class of young fellows, who, with no visible means of support, prey upon the community. There is an element of this sort in Charleroi which needs to be cleaned out.

One of the reasons why such a class is permitted to exist in any community is the sympathy and support it gets from the public. Many of the delinquents come from good families, and their actions are tolerated out of sympathy for their connections. This class keeps on gaining recruits, until a regular gang is established in time, such as the notorious "Alcohol Gang" of Monongahela. These are the powers that prey, and gambling, drinking carousing and thievery finally become their regular occupations. This eventually culminates in some desperate crime, such as occurred recently in Monongahela, until the community is aroused to action.

The only way to eliminate this element is to wage remorseless war against it. There is no necessity for an underworld in a town the size of Charleroi, and there are ample means for eliminating it. All that is necessary is for the people to give their active and moral support to the police, who will do the rest. This mawkish sympathy which many citizens give an offended who falls into the clutches of the law is a virtual support of the lawless element which will grow up in every community unless it is checked.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

When the American fleet took its noted trip around the world the naval lads ran into some interesting experiences Malcolm McGuire of Charleroi, who was quartermaster on one of the boats of the fleet tells of one funny incident.

"We had all classes on our boat. Among others there was a young fellow who was a graduate of two colleges. He was the limit. That man simply couldn't keep out of adventures and his wander-lust was continually getting him into scrapes, most of which fortunately had a happy ending.

"We had been having a fairly good time but this college youth's enthusiasm had not been given sufficient leeway for a man of his nature for some time. Then one fine day we steamed into Athens. Anchoring there awhile, some of the fellows got leave of absence from the ship. Among the number was the college man. We went into town. The college man got away from the crowd somehow, but we didn't pay much attention to that fact, knowing he would eventually turn up safe and sound

"Suddenly we heard a shouting up street. Hastily gleaning around we beheld the strangest sighet we had yet seen in our travels. There was that college man coming down street with an old man—an official of some sort, at his side And pounding the old official on the back the college man was shouting at the top of his voice: 'Nice old man,' 'good old geezer,' pretty fine ald son-of-a-gun.' Everytime he would pronounce his eulogy he would clap the old man on the back. The old man's face was wreathed in smiles and he actually thought he was being praised. Then the college man would let loose a few picturesque American oaths, but the old officer never suspected. Thus they went on. To his death bed I'll bet that official thought he was being praised for some laudable work."

Alderman Dick Elwood in a reminiscence published in the Monongahela Republican, tells an interesting tale of his experience as a showman back in the "airly days" of this section. With Frank Bentley and Albert Gregg the trio started out to tour the interior, and give exhibitions at the crossroads hamlets. With the aid of the local printer at Monongahela they had " paper" with flaring headlines, which was designed to make the farmers sit up and take notice, and separate them from their money. Among other things the posters stated:

"See Prof. J.Mills (Dick Elwood) in his world famous mesmerism act, also see him swallow a sword and eat fire. See James Montgomery Doolywuzzle, (Frank Bentley) the greatest comedian on the American stage. Hear the Human Canary (Albert Gregg) sing."

The first show was at Bentleyville, where the receipts amounted to 40 cents, the audience consisting of one adult and one child. Beallsville was next on the schedule, which the company reached $10 in debt. There the audience was much better, consisting of three men, a woman, three children, a dog and a cat. The receipts were $1.35, but instead of playing to the house the troupe dropped out of the back window and beat it.

They finally stopped at a farm house and asked for shelter for the night. They were taken in, and gave the woman of the house some jewelry in payment , which they were selling as a side issue. Upon counting it up they found that the night's lodging and breakfast for the three cost each one four cents in jewelry.

They then made their way overland to Rices Landing where they pawned Elwood's watch, which a man had sold to him some time before for 50 cents for passage on the old passenger boat Elector and finally arrived home none the worse for wear, but swearing that they were done with the show business.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can recommend it to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 363 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a miscrobe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebum, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hoope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots, and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently help to restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by aiding in making every hair root, follicle, and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "93" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it in Charleroi only at our store—The Rexall Store. Carroll's Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any specific medicine for its cure. The trouble has been that none was known until the many cures effected by Eckman's Alterative began to be realized. Now, for ten years, an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to this remedy have been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia, and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time, three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

(Signed Affidavit) ANNIE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and W. F. Hennings', Charleroi, Pa.

The Most Stylish Shoe Made

Smart, snug fitting shoes in all the new leathers and fabrics—every one with the wonderful Red Cross Comfort.

In all the newest leathers and fabrics the Red Cross Shoe has smarter lines and fits closer than any other shoe.

Until they saw the Red Cross Style Book or tried on the actual shoe so many women thought that the comfort of a Red Cross Shoe was due to soft leather, a low heel, clumsy lines and loose fit.

As a matter of fact, the comfort of the Red Cross Shoe is due to the way it fits the foot and follows its every movement as a glove moves with the hand.

Red Cross Shoe

Although of the regular thickness, the sole is perfectly supple. This is due the Special Red Cross Tanning Process which preserves all the natural life and elasticity of the leather—makes the sole bend with every movement of the foot.

LUCKY OLD PEOPLE

Have Seen Wonderful Progress From Ox-carts to Aeroplanes

What wonderful progress the old people of today have lived to see. In their young days the railroad was as much of a novelty as the aeroplane is now, and nearly everything else has progressed as much.

Another modern idea is that people may be active and vigorous at 75 or 80 years if they will be careful to keep up their strength.

Mr Jno. N. Kelly, aged 75, who lives at Lake Charles, La., says he was badly run down from overwork, and took two or three bottles of Vinol by advice of his druggist. He is now better than for the past ten years and actually feels fifteen years younger.

There is certainly nothing like Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation, to build up and keep up all weakenend, run down persons. It is especially goood for old people too, because it is very pleasant to take and agrees with the stomach. There is no cod liver oil in Vinol. We guarantee it to give you perfect satisfaction. TASTE FOR HIGH LIVING GETS MAN INTO TROUBLE

SPENT FEW DAYS HERE

Claimed He Was an Engineer Sent to Survey for Pennsylvania Railroad

Working under the theory that all the world owed him a living and that it was only duty was to attend to the collection of the debt, W. C. Hollman, alias Frederick C Werner, has got himself into a lot of trouble. Hollman devoted himself faithfully to the work of wresting an existance from the world with the least possible effort, but his automobile tastes and wheelbarrow income wrecked his fondest hopes and delusions. He is now being held pending a court trial on a charge of false pretense in Allegheny count

About two weeks ago it is said Hollman turned up in Charleroi He gave his name as Werner and was according to his story the first representative of a corps of engineers being sent here by the Pennsylvania Railroad to start surveys for a branch line. He carried himself like an earl and engaged rooms, it is said, at the Walsh Hotel, where he remained a few days. Then he secured three rooms for himself and a partner who was to come, at the home of P. J. Deprez on Fallowfield avenue. Werner was very careless with his visionary wealth and promised to compensate. Mr. Deprez for the rental of the three rooms with a monetary consideration amounting to about $80 per month Werner ordered a lot of furniture and prepared to set up housekeeping for himself in the grandest of style.

After occupying the suit of rooms a couple of days he discovered he had to go to Pittsburg On Wednesday of last week he went, it is stated, and took with him Victor Deprez. They stopped at the Monongahela House On a flimsy excuse the man left Deprez to wait for him and went away. That was the last seen of him by Mr. Deprez.

It seems that Werner then changed back to the name Hollman, rented a suit of rooms from a Pittsburg man, agreeing to pay $75. He wanted to furnish his own rooms, install telephones, and have every convenience. Later he had remained a day or so he presented a check for $500 in payment of his room rent and then went to the landlady to have the check cashed. Hollman is alleged to have told her he couldn't get it cashed and asked for a loan of $20, which she gave him Then he disappeared and was not heard of again until the woman's husband met him and then it required the services of the police to separate them loosed from each other's embrace. The woman's husband made information and Hollman was held for court by Magistrate Kirby.

Telephone Companies May Fight

Washington County to be Scene of Hot Warfare for Local Control

According to the Washington Record there are prospects of a telephone war in this county. For many years, the Western Union company has enjoyed a monoplay of the Washington district, but through an order handed down in the district court at Wheeling Wednesday, the Postal Telegraph the Western Union's main rival, gained entrance into Washington. The order signed by Judge Dayton gives the receivers of the National Telephone company the power to make a contract with the Postal people to use the National's circuit into Washington. The order also provides for other circuits and gives the National company permission to contract for service over the Postal company's circuits into Chicago, thus giving them entrance into the long distance field that they have heretofore not been able to enter Just how soon the Postal people will enter Washington is not certain, but it is given as probable that one or more circuits will be put in operation between there and Pittsburg before active operations are begun.

The rumored telephone war in Washington will mean that the National company will complete their construction there in the near future, if the plans of the officials of the company materializes thus putting it in position to compete with the Bell. The war, if started, is sure to be a merry one. It is stated that a big slash in rates may be expected and a large amount of additional service given subscribers for their money. According to rumor, this will include free service from Washington to Pittsburg, Claysville and practically all of Washington county. Just what concessions the Belle people will make to meet this is, of course not known.

Government Begins War On Trust

Movement is Made Against the United States Steel Corporation

The United States Government on Thursday filed in the United States court at Trenton a suit for the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation alleging it to be in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

In its prayer to the court the Government asks that the conspiracy and monopolization of trade and commerce by the Steel trust be declared unlawful and in violation of the Sherman law and asks that the defendants and each and every one of them and the officers, directors, stockholders and agents of the defendant corporations be perpetually enjoined from doing any act in pursuance or for the purpose of carrying out the same, and that the government also asks the separation of the Steel corporation into its component parts as they existed prior to its organization

Percival Phillips, a Brownsville product who is now a war correspondent on the London Express, is now near the seat of trouble in Tripoli. In a recent letter to his brother, J. S. M. Phillips, of Pittsburg, written from Sfax, Tunisia, he details some of his experiences. He says:

"I am off by a coastwise steamer this afternoon down the coast to Djerba, and we are trying to pass the blockade into Tripoli, 180 miles southward. No detailed news has come out yet, and I am most anxious to be among the first to enter. The French Consul General of Tripoli, who was turned back last week, goes by the same boat I left Paris last Sunday night for Marseilles, thence on a mail steamer to Tunis, arriving Tuesday morning, thence 250 miles by rail to Sfax.

"This is a beautiful town—the European quarter is clean and healthy and the walled Arab city one of the most beautiful sights I have ever seen In color, variety of costume and type it excels China and Japan. The white buildings, the veiled women, the camels in the narrow streets, the Mosques and the dazzling tints of the costumes fairly took my breath away, although I have seen a good many strange places.

"The moonlight is wonderful. Weather excessively hot and humid; nothing can be done in the middle of the day. I am feeling splendidly fit; wear the usual cholera belt and sun helmet. It is a great comfort to get into khaki and putees once more. One can keep quite well event in the cholera district by eating only cooked food and evading local water and wearing flannel across the abdomen."

Mr. Phillips began his newspaper work as a local correspondent for the Gazette Times, Pittsburg, and later worked on the Monongahela Republican before going to Pittsburg. From Pittsburg he went to New York and from thence to London.

Series Ends And Mack's Team Beats

Local Interests in World's Championship Games Subsides

With the completion of the world's series of baseball games by the defeat of the New York Nationals at Philadelphia Thursday by the Americans of that city, baseball fans are busy today telling how it happened Many are also either pocketing sundry wagers or paying the same, according to their judgment in picking the winning team.

At the outset of the series the Giants were the favorites if anything with the local fans, and "dope" without end was given out to show how the McGraw bunch could not be beaten. Street corner arguments were hot and heavy, and those who picked the Philadelphia team just because they were Pennsylvanians, now have the call on their opponents Advices from different sections up and down the river are beginning to leak out by sundry telegrams and letters from the seat of war for remittances as to how a numbere who attended the game in person placed their money

Yesterday the score in front of Weltner's pharmacy was the all absorbing point of interest, and as the game progressed with the Philadelphia team away in the lead, the backers of the Giants sorrowfully and silently one by one stole away. Those who backed the Mackites with their cash are today in a state of jubilation.

YOUNG MEN EACH GIVEN THIRTY DAYS IN JAIL

Disorderly Conduct is Charge Preferred Against Trio

ASPECTS OF THE CASE

Troublesome Element Somewhat Similar to Monongahela's "Gang"

Proven guilty of disorderly conduct by the testimony of seven witnesses, Ben Kiefer, Kenneth ("Bones") Matson and Robert McCurry were taken to jail this morning by Policeman Gust Brickner to begin a sentence of 30 days each imposed by Justice of the Peace E. E Rice in default of payment of $10 fine and costs. The trio was concerned in a disturbance on the street Wednesday evening Information was made against them by Chief of Police C W. Albright.

The hearing was given the young men Thursday evening. Witnesses heard were Police George McEldowney, Chief of Police C. W. Albright, Charles Frazier, Ed. Gilmore, Health Officer William Darby, James McNonagel and Councilman Charles O Frye The evidence offered was in effect the same. Kiefer, it was stated was arrested charged with insulting women, and Matson took up his side, with the result that an attempt was made to arrest him. He battled with the police and McCurry took up the matter to such an extent that he was adjudged guilty of creating disorder and locked up.

The local case has many of the aspects of that of the noted "Alcohol Gang" at Monongahela, a score of whose members is now serving time in the Washington jail for disorderly conduct While there are not so many concerned in the local affair, the source of what trouble occurred it is said is the same. From the "Alcohol Gang" at Monongahela came the killing of Joshua Wyeth by John W. Sarver, Jr., but the most that has come from the existence of a supposed gang here was the disturbance of the other night.

Smell Smoke in Storeroom

Current Switched on in Electric Iron Results in Firemen Being Called Out

When the smell of burning rubber was noticed at the store of L Kutler and Son, on Fallowfield avenue near the postoffice Thursday night at about 11:30 o'clock prompt action was taken that probably prevented a serious blaze Mrs H Lowsturter, who lives over the store, sent in the alarm by telephone to police headquarters and the firemen were called out by the ringing of Alarm No 19 The switch of the electric iron had been accidentally turned on and the iron was sitting on a table. Getting hotter and hotter the iron caused the piece of rubber to burn. In a little while, it is supposed the whole store would have been on fire

Pittsburg Police Get Local Boys

Two Lads to Appear Against Man Supposed to Have Enticed Them

Chief of Police C. W. Albright received information this morning that Edward Paulso and James Sandi boys about 14 years old, of Charleroi were being held at No. 2 Central police station at Pittsburg, to testify as witnesses against a man by the name of Delalcher, claimed to have enticed the boys to Pittsburg for immoral purposes. Parents of the two lads were notified.

Poulso and Sandi were picked up by the police on Dinwiddie avenue. 8They told a story of how they were enticed away from their homes by Delalcher and said he wanted them for immoral purposes. They told the story of how they left their homes in detail, it is said, and the police after a search arrested the accused man.

When the Pittsburg police are through with the boys as witnesses they will be sent home

A RIGHTEOUS SENTENCE.

The imposition of a thirty days sentence upon the offenders who created disorder on the streets Wednesday by a local justice of the peace, is a righteous one, and meets with the general approbation of the public. Not only is the sentence a salutary example of the supremacy of law and order, but it also is a move against a class of young fellows, who, with no visible means of support, prey upon the community. There is an element of this sort in Charleroi which needs to be cleaned out.

One of the reasons why such a class is permitted to exist in any community is the sympathy and support it gets from the public. Many of the delinquents come from good families, and their actions are tolerated out of sympathy for their connections. This class keeps on gaining recruits, until a regular gang is established in time, such as the notorious "Alcohol Gang" of Monongahela. These are the powers that prey, and gambling, drinking carousing and thievery finally become their regular occupations. This eventually culminates in some desperate crime, such as occurred recently in Monongahela, until the community is aroused to action.

The only way to eliminate this element is to wage remorseless war against it. There is no necessity for an underworld in a town the size of Charleroi, and there are ample means for eliminating it. All that is necessary is for the people to give their active and moral support to the police, who will do the rest. This mawkish sympathy which many citizens give an offended who falls into the clutches of the law is a virtual support of the lawless element which will grow up in every community unless it is checked.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

When the American fleet took its noted trip around the world the naval lads ran into some interesting experiences Malcolm McGuire of Charleroi, who was quartermaster on one of the boats of the fleet tells of one funny incident.

"We had all classes on our boat. Among others there was a young fellow who was a graduate of two colleges. He was the limit. That man simply couldn't keep out of adventures and his wander-lust was continually getting him into scrapes, most of which fortunately had a happy ending.

"We had been having a fairly good time but this college youth's enthusiasm had not been given sufficient leeway for a man of his nature for some time. Then one fine day we steamed into Athens. Anchoring there awhile, some of the fellows got leave of absence from the ship. Among the number was the college man. We went into town. The college man got away from the crowd somehow, but we didn't pay much attention to that fact, knowing he would eventually turn up safe and sound

"Suddenly we heard a shouting up street. Hastily gleaning around we beheld the strangest sighet we had yet seen in our travels. There was that college man coming down street with an old man—an official of some sort, at his side And pounding the old official on the back the college man was shouting at the top of his voice: 'Nice old man,' 'good old geezer,' pretty fine old son-of-a-gun.' Everytime he would pronounce his eulogy he would clap the old man on the back. The old man's face was wreathed in smiles and he actually thought he was being praised. Then the college man would let loose a few picturesque American oaths, but the old officer never suspected. Thus they went on. To his death bed I'll bet that official thought he was being praised for some laudable work."

Alderman Dick Elwood in a reminiscence published in the Monongahela Republican, tells an interesting tale of his experience as a showman back in the "airly days" of this section. With Frank Bentley and Albert Gregg the trio started out to tour the interior, and give exhibitions at the crossroads hamlets. With the aid of the local printer at Monongahela they had " paper" with flaring headlines, which was designed to make the farmers sit up and take notice, and separate them from their money. Among other things the posters stated:

"See Prof. J. Mills (Dick Elwood) in his world famous mesmerism act, also see him swallow a sword and eat fire. See James Montgomery Doolywuzzle, (Frank Bentley) the greatest comedian on the American stage. Hear the Human Canary (Albert Gregg) sing."

The first show was at Bentleyville, where the receipts amounted to 40 cents, the audience consisting of one adult and one child. Beallsville was next on the schedule, which the company reached $10 in debt. There the audience was much better, consisting of three men, a woman, three children, a dog and a cat. The receipts were $1.35, but instead of playing to the house the troupe dropped out of the back window and beat it.

They finally stopped at a farm house and asked for shelter for the night. They were taken in, and gave the woman of the house some jewelry in payment, which they were selling as a side issue. Upon counting it up they found that the night's lodging and breakfast for the three cost each one four cents in jewelry.

They then made their way overland to Rices Landing where they pawned Elwood's watch, which a man had sold to him some time before for 50 cents for passage on the old passenger boat Elector and finally arrived home none the worse for wear, but swearing that they were done with the show business.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is something that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 3003 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any specific medicine for its cure. The trouble has been that none was known until the many cures effected by Eckman's Alterative began to be realized. Now, for ten years, an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to this remedy have been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1908 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia, and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1910 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages: at one time, three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

(Signed Affidavit) ANNIE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and W. F. Hennings', Charleroi, Pa.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a miscrobe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebum, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hoope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots, and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently help to restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by aiding in making every hair root, follicle, and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "93" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it in Charleroi only at our store—The Rexall Store. Carroll's Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi.

Smart, snug fitting shoes in all the new leathers and fabrics—every one with the wonderful Red Cross Comfort.

In all the newest leathers and fabrics the Red Cross Shoe has smarter lines and fits closer than any other shoe.

Until they saw the Red Cross Style Book or tried on the actual shoe so many women thought that the comfort of a Red Cross Shoe was due to soft leather, a low heel, clumsy lines and loose fit.

As a matter of fact, the comfort of the Red Cross Shoe is due to the way it fits the foot and follows its every movement as a glove moves with the hand.

Red Cross Shoe

Although of the regular thickness, the sole is perfectly supple. This is due the Special Red Cross Tanning Process which preserves all the natural life and elasticity of the leather—makes the sole bend with every movement of the foot.

LUCKY OLD PEOPLE

Have Seen Wonderful Progress From Ox-carts to Aeroplanes

What wonderful progress the old people of today have lived to see. In their young days the railroad was as much of a novelty as the aeroplane is now, and nearly everything else has progressed as much.

Another modern idea is that people may be active and vigorous at 75 or 80 years if they will be careful to keep up their strength.

Mr Jno. N. Kelly, aged 75, who lives at Lake Charles, La., says he was badly run down from overwork, and took two or three bottles of Vinol by advice of his druggist. He is now better than for the past ten years and actually feels fifteen years younger.

There is certainly nothing like Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation, to build up and keep up all weakenend, run down persons. It is especially goood for old people too, because it is very pleasant to take and agrees with the stomach. There is no cod liver oil in Vinol. We guarantee it to give you perfect satisfaction.
